

INVITATION FOR INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE

„HEALTH in SPORT - SPORT for HEALTH”

16TH NOVEMBER 2018

VENUE:

Centrum Edukacji, Kultury Fizycznej i Sportu
Uniwersytet Kazimierza Wielkiego
ul. Sportowa 2, Bydgoszcz

Organizers

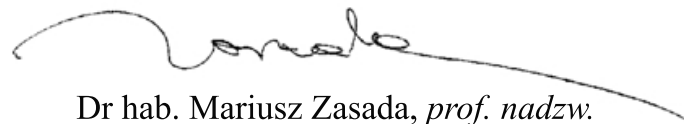

Dear Sirs,

The Institute of Physical Education of the Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz would like to invite you to the International Scientific Conference "Health in sport, sport for health". Employees of the Institute of Physical Education for more than 20 years have been implementing, in addition to scientific research, social activities promoting physical activity, both in terms of performance, as well as recreational and health-promoting. The conference will cover Sports and Health issues as well as their mutual relations.

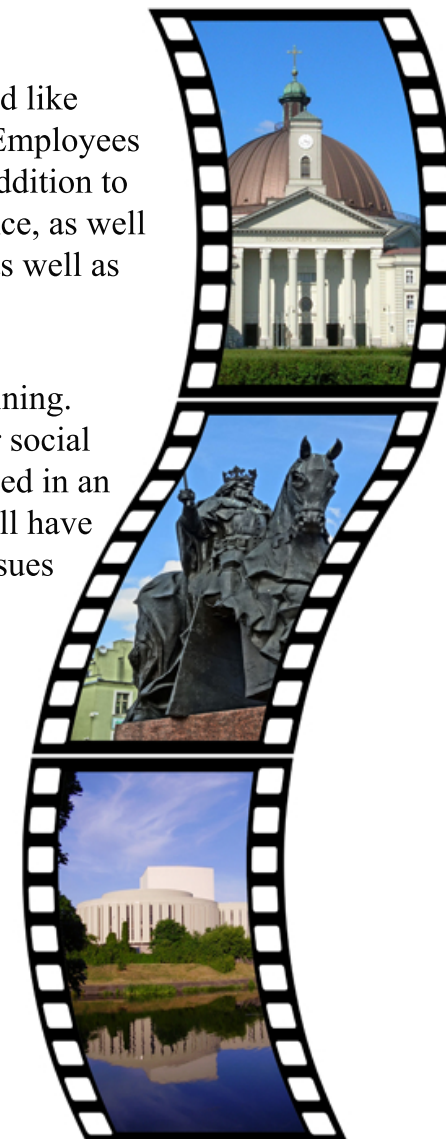

Training is most often associated with competitive sport, but society in the face of many civilization diseases is more and more aware of the real benefits of health training. Physical activity allows the implementation of many health needs also in the intellectual or social area. Therefore, it is essential that the issue of health in sport and sport for health is discussed in an interdisciplinary approach. Scientists from Poland as well as invited guests from abroad will have the opportunity to present results, to discuss and establish further cooperation on current issues in the area of sport and health.

We invite you to active and passive participation in the conference. We count on a wide participation of the scientific and medical community as well as teachers, trainers, instructors and health promoters.
